On a separate piece of paper, please describe your child, being sure to comment on his/her strengths and weaknesses as you see them. In addition, please set forth your understanding of a classical Catholic education in general and the Chesterton Academy's program of classical Catholic education in particular and why you think your child would benefit from such an education.
On a separate piece of paper and without assistance, the applicant must submit a one-page essay describing his or her experience of school and attitude toward learning.

Because the Chesterton Academy of Akron is unique in its educational approach, it is generally required that parents spend a day at the school before their children "shadow" for a day and before an application for admission will be considered.

In addition to this form, the applicant must submit academic records. If your child has been home schooled, please describe the program, indicating the grade or course level being studied. We are particularly interested in mathematics and Latin courses for placement purposed.
